

Solution Center Wiesbaden

The certified Solution Center of SVA in Wiesbaden provides SVA expertes and customers with a broad set of demonstration, development and education scenarios with the most important up-to-date hardware and software solutions of the SVA partners.

- In-house education and reference architectures
- Customer related demos and proof of concepts
- Workshops e.g. for migrations and upgrades
- Worldwide access for System Engineers and producers
- Certifications and compatibility testing
- Early shipments and beta testing
- Design center

Many products of various partners as for example:

Server systems, storage virtualization, server virtualization, cloud architectures, converged systems, physical and virtual tape systems, scalable file systems, software solutions and many more.